

SURF MONSTER

Adapted Sid Perry, Rob Zimmerman

1. If you ever go surfing late at night.
When the beach is dark and the moon is bright.
That's when he raises from a watery grave.
To ride the surf on a giant wave.

Chorus:

He's a surf monster YEAH YEAH (repeat)
He's 6 feet tall. He's covered with scales.
He's got seaweed growing from his fingernails.
When he rides the surf he always wails
KAWABUNGA!!!

2. It's a legend here at Frost Valley.
Don't sing along if you think it's silly.
It's a story from the days of ol'.
'Bout a surf monster in Lake Cole. Chorus:

3. It's a story of a surf maniac.
Who went out one night and never came back.
He became a creature from beneath the Sea.
And he rides the waves here at Frost Valley.

4. So if you ever go down there late at night.
You may just get an awful fright.
If you see the water starting to stir.
RUN FOR YOUR LIFE, IT'S A SURF MONSTER.

Final Chorus:

He's 6 feet or so it seems.
He walks the night, he haunts your dreams.
When he ride the surf he always screams.
KAWABUNGA!!
